Week 28

Announcer: Coming up, international Bible teacher, Beth Moore explains how we can experience redemption from our past.

Beth: Redemption says, my God can buy back the worst season of my life and turn it around into such praise, such testimony, such a word of hope to somebody else that he will be glorified for the rest of my life on this planet. That's what redemption says!

James: Hey! Thank all of you. We appreciate the welcome and we welcome you to LIFE Today. I'm James Robison. My wife Betty and I are thrilled to be presenting Beth Moore. She is such a treasure and such a blessing. She is here teaching week after week on Wednesdays with rare exception. There may be some emphasis sometimes that she might not be here but there is a very rare exception. She is talking about cast down to ecstatic joy. How do you go from heartache and grief and heaviness and we understand that, and I don't know if we've reached the point of ecstatic joy yet, but we've reached those high points when you've had a loss in your family that you don't understand. You find that you really need to be literally held in the arms of God and there is a peace that passes understanding. Beth really can share clearly how we can go from the pits of despair and seeming depravity to ecstatic glory -- agony to triumph. Here's Beth. Would you welcome Beth Moore?

Beth: Now listen. There's a way to know when something is oppression of the enemy.

End with: There's a saying we say to one another, it is going to be all right! It's going to be all right! It's going to be all right! But I have something better for you than that because Jesus didn't come for its, he came for people. You are going to be all right. You are. You are going to be all right. Listen, listen right here right here right here, you are going to be all right if you're in Jesus, this turns out very good. Very well.

James: I think make a believer out of most people who are sensitive enough to recognize truth. We know we win. We know we win. Even when it looks like we're not, all things do work together for good for those who love God who are called according to his purpose. I think, Betty, it is important for people to realize that this love God in the face of challenges and difficult times is not something that normally comes about during those times if it hasn't preceded the time. I find a lot of people saying, I wish I love God and then something terrible happens or some pressure comes and they start wondering why they don't get there. I really pray that you really grasp what Beth is saying in him, in Christ, in Jesus, with him no matter what. He prevails over hell. The gates of hell do not prevail over us. We win! And it is the truth. I want you to listen to a story from a woman when she's asked a simple question. As a matter of fact, it was a question, Betty that Tammy asked; Tammy Trent in the mission fields of India, just recently, just a few days back and she asked this question and then the interpreter, the translator had to explain what exactly the question was and her response -- it really took us back. Watch.

James: I pray that you first of all help us give water but that you not only ask for majesty but you're going to see and recognize his majesty first when Jack Hayford talking about majesty, what a song. And then the names of God, what they mean, what they mean to you. The beautiful pens that are a blessing, they are a testimony, they're witness pens. The fruit of the spirit, God's names, biblical terms that really catch people's attention as well as being a nice pen. And we're saying thank you. We're not trying to give you something to get something from you; we're saying thank you because we love you. Just like you're saying, we're going to give not only a cup of water but we're going to contribute to give 500 wells of water. Thank you for that. Tell your friends about LIFE Today. Tell them what we're doing. Tell them the joy you experience when you change someone's life with an act of love. Thanks for joining us.
