

Week 44

10/28/'09

Announcer: Coming up, Beth Moore offers encouragement from God's word.

Beth: He finds you interesting! Intriguing! Is continually seeing what he's developing in you before it even erupts into our behaviors or our speech. He already knows what's going on deep inside of us. Our God continually searches us out.

Announcer: To know and be known -- next on LIFE Today!

James: This is a special day! Welcome to "Wednesdays with Beth" on LIFE Today. I'm James Robison. My wife Betty and I are thrilled to come into your home every day. I really would like to think that you make this a part of your day, as many days during Monday through Friday as you can and on Sundays, as many areas as the program airs. I hope that you will encourage friends. Betty, I would love to be able to talk to every single person in the civilized world at whatever time of day we appear in your community, your state, your province, your nation, and that have this would be just a part of it and you would encourage your friends to watch because we really want to go with you on a journey, knowing God fully, intimately as father and friend and we need you to understand that he does know us. That doesn't mean to be frightening. It can actually have a very profound positive effect. Now welcome Beth Moore. You're going to enjoy this.

Beth: I cannot wait for you to see what I'd like to present to you as one of the most unique chapters in all of scripture --

End with: one of God's goals to get us to come forth and be the person he knows we can be. We will just say over and over again, I'm too weak for this. He goes, you know what? You can do all things through Christ who strengthens you, whose spirit is inside of you. You are a warrior not a wimp! I know what you are capable of.

James: Beth, I like that! I've never been real high on wimpy -- wimpy guys. We've got too many wimp Christians filling churches. They just need to stand up and I can't help but believe, Betty, that if a person really knows God -- you remember in the New Testament in Acts the disciples were being threatened and they said, we can't help but speak the things we've seen and heard. They had seen something, heard something and wanted to talk about it. Don't you wonder about Christians who seem to be able to have share?

Betty: Yeah! It is easy to fall into that position because I did. I was very passive as a young Christian. But yet to realize and know that God wants this real relationship with us and he wants us -- he gives us boldness to proclaim his word and what he teaches.

James: And the way I think we get that boldness is getting to know the one who gives it, and know him intimately and excited about him. One of the things that we've come to know when you get close to him is the fact that you notice others and you don't just look at them and hope someone will show interest or concern for that person, you become the person that shows interest and concern. When we're able to share, if you care you will. I want you to listen to two people I have tremendous respect for. I think they're full of the love of God. I want you to see an opportunity for you to go right into this place of pain and bring absolute healing. There is hope that you can offer. You can offer the help and the life. Watch this.

James: I want to thank you for your help and I want to remind you that we are giving Edward John's incredible teaching. By the way, he is one of the most anointed people I know. It is like when he walks into a setting, it is like Jesus literally came into the room dressed up in Edward. When he talks about conquering the fear and Betty, you understand that so well and all of us have those fears and the enemy puts condemnation on us, get past that and begin to experience life fully. We're sending this, you help us feed three, five, or ten children, whatever you can do, we're going to send this to you to be a blessing to you because we want to bless your life. And we say thanks and you'll be grateful for what you learn and hear. Thanks for watching LIFE Today.
